A Busy Week Brought to a Brilliant Close.

A PRETTY COMING OUT TEA.

The Russian Ambassador and Countess Cassini Entertain at Dinner-First Subscription Cotillion on New Year Eve.

Yesterday's Kettledrum brought the week to a brilliant close

The last of the week's debutantes to be presented was Miss Ruth Halford, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Halford, whose coming out tea brought together a large contingent from the old Washington families, as well as a number of friends from the Senatorial circle.

The family residence on Twenty-second Street was artistically decorated with Alabama laurel that sprayed the crimson walls of the reception hall and the corners of the drawing rooms-the greenery forming an effective background for groupings of American Beauty roacs. The mantels and tables were filled with flowers sent in. In the gally-bedecied tea. room the candles burned under pink | Lovering, Jr. shades, and the centre of the table adorned with pink roses. Mrs. Halford, in pink silk and white lace, stood in the first drawing room with her daughter, who was girlishly graceful in a simple but exquisitely made gown of white mult and insertions of white lace. From the flowers sent in she selected to carry a large bouquet of pink carnations and lilies of the valley, caught with loops and streamers of gauge.

Mrs. Burrows, wife of Senator Burrows, and Mrs. C. E. Foster presided at the tea table, and Miss Ridgely, the schoolgirl daughter of the Comptroller of the Currency, served lemonade. Among the matrons and maids on social duty were Mrs. J. W. Foster, Mrs. J. O. Evans, Mrs. Walcott, Mrs. Ridgely, Miss Olive Gale, Miss Hester Shepard, and Miss Hurst.

The Russian Ambassador and Countess Cassini entertained at dinner last night. Their guests were the Count of Montebello, Miss Robeson, Miss May, Miss Barney, Lieutenant Commander de Fara-mond and M. Hermite, of the French Embassy, and the gentlemen of the Russian

Humors

They take possession of the body, and are Lords of Misrule.

They are attended by pimples, bolls, the itching tetter, sait rheum, and other cutaneous eruptions; by feelings of wakness, languor, general debility and what not.

They cause more suffering than anything size.

Health, Strength, Peace and Pleasure require their expulsion, and this is posi-tively effected, according to thousands of grateful testimonials, by

Hood's Sarsaparilla Which radically and permanently drives them out and builds up the whole system.
